SOCIAL EVENTS.

Successful Valentine Ball Given By The Comus Club.

The Valentine Ball given by the Comus Club in Pythian hall, Friday evening was one of the best attended balls ever given in that hall. The decorations consisted of many red hearts of various sizes strung around the room giving a very pleasing effect. Special features of the occasion were four large tissue paper hearts filled with many tiny hearts. Strings attached to these were pulled at different times during the evening, letting showers of these tiny hearts down. Miss Blanche Burns' orchestra of three pieces from Newport furnished excellent music. Miss Burns was at the piano, being assisted by Frank Burns and Tom Burroughs. Punch was served during the evening by Miss Helen Steele and Miss Beatrice Wright. The committee on arrangements was Misses Elvise Sargent, Vera Barrett and Beatrice Potts. Everyone seemed to enjoy the occasion and many expressed the desire that the Club would soon give another ball. The patronesses were: Mrs. Emerson E. Sargent, Mrs. Fred E. Potts, Mrs. Harry Bartlett and Mrs. Ora W. Drew.

Thursday evening, February 12th, the pupils of the ninth grade of the Portland Street School, with their teacher, Miss Ruby Smith gave Miss Rae Astle a surprise party in honor of her fourteenth birthday. Refreshments of sandwiches, cocoa, cake and ice cream were served. After a pleasant evening spent playing games the guests departed leaving with their hostess a very pretty manicule set. The Men's League of the Church of the Messiah celebrated Ladies' Night last Thursday in a manner that brought enjoyment to all present. An excellent hash supper was served. Dr. Woodworth of the North church gave a most instructive and enjoyable address on "The Problem, Lincoln Left." The St. Johnsbury Trio, Miss Helen Boynton violin, Miss Maude Brown piano, Mr. Laughlin cello, rendered several numbers of a high order of excellence. Those who hear this orchestra will have a treat.

Mrs. W. H. Jenks and Mrs. C. E. Abbot entertained a company of teachers Saturday afternoon at the latter's home at a sewing party in honor of Miss Ella Moore whose engagement to John Morris of East Thetford was announced at this time. Several guessing stunts were enjoyed and valentines distributed to each guest with verses written on the back of each explaining the fact why Miss Moore's valentine was a beautiful solitaire. Prizes were won by Misses Caroline Woodruff, Grace Barney and Anna Stevens. Tea and accompanying dainties were served and a delightful time of congratulation enjoyed.

Miss Elizabeth Woodworth entertained a number of the young ladies in town at a tea party given at her home here Wednesday afternoon. Madawaska Camp Fire girls met at the home of Miss Charlotte Bundy, Saturday evening. In spite of the severe storm a goodly number were present, and all enjoyed a very good time.

The Fifty Club was entertained by Mrs. W. O. Rocheleau and Mrs. Ellen Gile at the home of Mrs. Gile, Thursday afternoon and evening. A guessing contest was one of the features of the occasion. Refreshments were served and games played in the evening.

A most enjoyable time was spent by a few friends at a Valentine party Saturday evening at Mrs. Antoine Grenier's on Prospect avenue.

Mrs. Charles Moffett very pleasantly entertained the whist club last Saturday evening at a Valentine party. Monday evening the members of the boy's choir of the Notre Dame church enjoyed a banquet in St. Agnes hall, Tuesday evening, there was a banquet for the St. Celia choir.

A Valentine social was given by the Epworth League in the Methodist church parlors, Friday evening, and a very good time spent. The Outlook Club met Wednesday with Mrs. Alex Drew and enjoyed a program appropriate to Lincoln day. The roll call was answered by anecdotes of Lincoln. Mrs. Ada Cummings gave the life of Lincoln. Mrs. T. H. Underwood read an original poem and as it was Mrs. Cummings's birthday she was presented with carnations and a birthday cake. Music for the afternoon consisted of a piano solo by Mrs. Florence Morrison and a piano duet by Mrs. Sarah F. Hovey and Mrs. Bertha Macomber. The meeting this week will be with Mrs. Samuel Morrison on Cliff street. The Newcomers Club was very pleasantly entertained by Mrs. J. Rolf Searles, Thursday afternoon.

RECENT DEATHS.

Mayhew.

Nelson J. Mayhew died at his home in Waterford, February 4, the cause of death being consumption and other complications. He was born in Cranberry, P. Q., November 5, 1865, and lived there for 23 years, then coming to Vermont. It was 15 years ago that he bought a farm in Waterford, and six years later he was married to Kate C. Cameron. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Kate Mayhew of Waterford, by his father and mother of Cranberry, P. Q., three brothers, Charles, of St. Johnsbury Center, Fred J. of Kingston, Ore., and Elmer R. of Los Angeles, Cal., and by two sisters, Mary and Lily, also of California.

Douglas.

News has been received of the death of Rev. Henry Marshall Douglas at Bernardston, Mass., on Feb. 11. Mr. Douglas was the pastor of the First Baptist church here from 1894 to 1898. His death occurred very suddenly as he was attending a sugar social given by his church in the town hall. He had not complained of ill health during the day but suddenly fell forward, and lived but a few minutes. Funeral services were held at the Baptist church, February 13, and burial was in West Haven, Vt. Mr. Douglas's death leaves a large place to be filled, not only in his immediate family and church but in the town. He was born in Fernwood, N. Y., and was 68 years of age. He obtained his education in Oswego Normal School and in Colgate Theological Seminary and taught in the University of Illinois for some time before being ordained which later event came at Harpersville, N. Y. Here he preached for some time going from there to Middle Falls, N. Y., Putney, Vt., St. Johnsbury, Vt., West Haven, Vt., where he preached thirteen years and a half when he came to Bernardston three years ago. He is survived by two daughters, Florence and Helen (Mrs. William Field). Mrs. Douglas died in 1906.

Gaughon.

After many weeks of suffering, Mrs. Annie Gaughon died at the home of her son Alton, February 10. She had been confined to her bed since the first of September and had been at the home of her son here since December. She was about 70 years old and was born in Capelton, Canada, her maiden name being, Annie McDonald. Most of her life was spent in Newport. Her first husband was Mr. Slack, and about 45 years ago she was married to Thomas Gaughon. The body was taken to Newport, and funeral services held there at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jack Carter, at 1:30 Thursday afternoon, the Rev. Mr. Pointfreely officiating. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Jack Carter, and Mrs. E. J. Fitzpatrick of Newport, and Mrs. Annie Leavitt of Montreal, and by two sons, A. G. Gaughon of St. Johnsbury and Malcolm Slack of Linwick, Canada. Mrs. Gaughon was of Scotch descent and was always most devoted to her church.

Shea.

John Shea, age 45 died at St. Johnsbury hospital, February 11. He had been employed at the E. and T. Fairbanks Co. Scale factory, although he had not been in St. Johnsbury long. Little is known of him. A woman with whom he boarded, several years ago, said she thought he had a sister, Mrs. Evans, in Roxbury, but no definite information could be obtained. He was buried in the Catholic cemetery, Saturday morning.

Passumpsic Valley Ministers.

The Passumpsic Valley Ministers association met with Rev. J. J. Hutchinson at Lyndonville, Monday. Rev. S. F. Goodheart of Contervale gave a "Religious Review of the World" and Rev. E. E. Phillips presented a paper on "Recent Archaeology and the Bible." Both themes called forth extended discussion which was entered into by all. Five denominations were represented and at first it seemed that there was a wide divergence of opinion relative to many features of the themes under consideration; but it became more evident, during the discussions that the seeming difference was more a difference of the individual's form of expression or method of thought than any substantial difference of belief, spirit or practice. A sweet spirit of Christian fellowship prevailed and it was considered a very pleasant and profitable occasion. In anticipation of the event Rev. John Daniels was inspired to compose a few verses with which the meeting was brought to a felicitous close.
